Prayers 1-4: The Abandoned Mother's Faith

Amina, an 18-year-old single mother in Chad, was abandoned by her Muslim husband who couldn't reconcile their different faiths. Living with her infant son David in her mother's compound, she faces poverty while clinging to her Christian faith, strengthened by her audio Bible in Kenga.

Prayers 5-8: From Witchcraft to Witness

Juanita, a former witch and midwife in Mexico's Chiapas mountains, found Jesus through a miraculous near-death experience. Her conversion cost her everything, including her home, but she now radiates hope and encourages other persecuted Christians to trust in God's provision, finding joy through her Tzotzil audio Bible.

Prayers 9-12: The Everyday Evangelist

Samuel Mbaye, a 35-year-old security guard in Chad, uses his MP3 player and Kenga audio Bible as evangelism tools, sharing God's Word with neighbors and coworkers. His faith provides strength against opposition, demonstrating how technology empowers believers to spread the gospel in challenging environments.

“People want the words from these audio Bibles because these words are wonderful. These are the words of Jesus.”
