International Day of Prayer for the Persecuted Church

Sunday, Nov 2, 2025

When prayer is all you have left

The International Day of Prayer is a day when the church collectively lifts the persecuted church in prayer.

Today, an estimated 1 in 7 of our Christian brothers and sisters endure opposition for their belief in Jesus Christ. Opposition can take many forms from harassment to physical violence and even death. And prayer is the most powerful force we can mobilize on their behalf.

Join millions of believers worldwide on Nov 2 in dedicated prayer for the men, women, and children facing persecution today.
